

Call for Women Research Students Participation in funding the costs of travel to conferences abroad

Students for an MA with thesis and PhD are invited to submit requests for participation in funding travel to conferences abroad.

The travel grant, amounting up to $500, will be extended only subject to matching funding by your department or faculty.

The amount will be determined based on academic excellence, conference status, destination, and budget constraints. The grants will be given to students who have not yet submitted their work for review.

Students can receive the grant only once during their studies for each degree, for conferences in April 2024 to September 2024.

Please access the application form at the Gender Equity Unit website:
