

Bar-Ilan University (Israel)

For International Graduate and Postdoctoral Students 2026

Are you interested in a short-term research experience in Israel?

Bar-Ilan University invites applications from international graduate students (Master's, PhD or Postdoctoral level) in all academic fields, interested in a short-term research stay in Israel during the year 2026.

This initiative aims to foster academic collaboration and cross-cultural exchange by hosting promising young researchers from around the world. Participants will engage in joint research with Bar-Ilan faculty and gain meaningful exposure to Israeli academia and society.

What Does the Program Offer?

- A 1–4 month research stay working directly with a Bar-Ilan University researcher
- Participation in relevant academic courses (including those related to Jewish Studies, History, or Political Science)
- Cultural and social engagement with Israeli students
- A unique opportunity to broaden your academic horizons while building lasting scholarly connections

Financial Support:

- 6,000 NIS (~1,850 USD) per month
- Priority will be given to applicants from Scandinavian countries

How to Apply?

Students must reach out directly to a Bar-Ilan University faculty member in their field of interest to discuss potential collaboration and request a nomination.

We recommend initiating contact as early as possible, as funding is limited and awarded on a rolling basis.
